

What's Working for English Learners

SUCCESS STORIES FROM THE FIELD

Presented by Leading Educators and Administrators

Come learn from teachers and administrators who successfully meet the current needs of English learners! The conference schedule includes breakout sessions by current educators, informal discussion opportunities with the presenters, and complimentary lunch.

You will hear how districts are successfully addressing challenges, in sessions such as:

- Strategies for Supporting Newcomers to Long-Term ELs in the Age of Remote Learning
- Using Technology to Support the Four Domains of Language
- New Ways of Teaching Grammar: Cooperative Learning Using Minimal Pairs
- Promoting Equity for ELs in a Digital Environment
- How to Foster Dual Language Success during COVID19 and Beyond
- Sheltered Instruction to Solve Math Word Problems
- Using Innovative Programs to Support Newcomers

...and more!

All those in attendance including Seidlitz Education, LLC employees and invited guests will be expected to follow all COVID-related CDC guidelines during the conference.
